

School visits with author Nicole Godwin

Nicole Godwin is available to visit your school and talk about the picture book Jelly-Boy and ocean conservation.

About the picture book, Jelly-Boy

What happens when a jellyfish falls in love with a plastic bag she mistakes for a jelly-boy? He is big and strong, and so very brave, but hides a dangerous truth.

Published by Walker Books Australia, Jelly-Boy is a quirky story, with a strong ocean conservation focus. This book will inspire a new generation of ocean warriors.

Key themes include ocean junk, ocean plastic and family connections.

Presentations

Nicole has developed a number of presentations, which are tailored to different age groups. The two main presentations are:

'Jelly-Boy and ocean life': for children up to Year 1

These sessions typically run for 30 minutes

As part of this presentation, Nicole will read Jelly-Boy, involving students in the story telling. Nicole will talk about her motivation for writing Jelly-Boy and share insights into issues being caused by ocean plastic.

Nicole's presentation style is very interactive, with lots of questions for the children as she shares information on ocean plastic.

'Jelly-Boy – helping dolphins through story': for children in Year 2 – 6

These sessions typically run for 45 minutes.

This presentation includes an interactive reading of Jelly-Boy followed by a discussion about plastic in our oceans. Nicole will talk about her motivation for writing Jelly-Boy and talk about how books can influence behavior. She will share insights into real life issues facing our oceans.

Nicole will also provide students with an overview of the book production process from the planning and drafting stage through to creation of a final book. As part of this discussion Nicole will share some early concept drafts from the book and talk about how the illustrator and author work together.

Nicole's presentation style is very interactive, with lots of questions for the students as she shares interesting and engaging information on our oceans.

Curriculum links

In addition to linking to the learning area of English (focus on literature) F – 6 within the Australian Curriculum, Jelly-Boy also directly links to the cross-curriculum priority of sustainability and the general capability of ethical understanding.

Session timing and group sizes

Sessions generally run for 30 to 45 minutes (see presentation overviews above), including a short Q&A at the end. All presentations can be shortened or lengthened to suit. Nicole is flexible with the length of sessions and group size.

Nicole's sessions work equally well with a single class or up to three classes combined.

Presentation Type

Each session will include an interactive book reading and Powerpoint presentation.

Age groups

The presentations are suitable for kindergarten to grade six. Nicole can also adapt the presentations for high school students.

Technical requirements

Nicole will require a smart-board or projector setup with Power Point

Working with vulnerable people

Nicole has an Australian Capital Territory 'Working With Vulnerable People' card.

Payment rates

Full day, half day and individual session rates are based on the Australian Society of Authors pay recommendations:

- Whole school day – $800 (including two signed copies of Jelly-Boy)
- Half school day (2 sessions) – $480 (including one signed copies of Jelly-Boy)
- Per school session (max. 1 session) – $260 (including one signed copies of Jelly-Boy)

Testimonial

During Book Week this year our school was privileged to host a little Canberra Treasure, Nicole Godwin. She is a local and has recently launched her most recent book, Billie. We have had ELC – Year 6 meet with her and she has captivated all age groups. She is absolutely wonderful. Nicole's books send such a wonderful and relevant message, and with spectacular imagery.

Nicole discusses and brings awareness to the ocean environmental conservation, waste and the effect on animals. Billie is a great literature link with the curriculum and sustainability. She also talks and shows students how the writing and illustration process works. Nicole is passionate, relevant, knowledgeable, engaging and experienced in her presentation. I cannot recommend her enough – we have loved having her here.

My family didn't like you.

"He's not one of us."
"We've seen his type before."
"He's dangerous."

We rode the swell.
We dived deep and explored.
We braved the stormy water.
Until its wildness took you.

I resisted, but the current whisked me onwards.
It was too late!
